HOW TO USE THIS KIT

What is in the kit

Raashid (raashid.com) is a free tool that helps a family work out an inheritance plan in about five minutes, aligned with Islamic inheritance rules. It runs on the visitor's device, with no login, no cookies, no ads and no analytics. It covers four Sunni schools and 45 countries, and is available in English and Arabic. It is general information. It is not a will, and it does not replace an imam, a scholar or an attorney.

This guide holds six resources. Wherever you see [square brackets], fill in your own details. Religious explanation always stays with your imam or a qualified scholar.

Resource	Use it for	Page
1. Family intake sheet	A family fills this in before meeting the imam (a fillable copy is a separate file)	3
2. Imam source packet	Preparing a talk or a consultation	4
3. Workshop facilitator guide	Running a 60-minute or 30-minute session with the slide deck	5
4. Estate-readiness campaign kit	Announcements, bulletin and social text, a professionals' Q&A; night	6
5. Bereavement committee pack	Helping a family in the weeks after a death	7
6. Weekend-school module	Three lessons for older students	8

Other files in the kit

- Community Workshop slides (PowerPoint and PDF): 11 slides with speaker notes, to pair with resource 3.
- Family intake sheet (fillable PDF): the form from resource 1, ready to fill in on screen or print.
- Flyer and bulletin pack (PDF and a plain text file): a fill-in event flyer and the announcement text from resource 4.

Before you present or print anything, check raashid.com for any change. This kit reflects the site as read on 9 October 2026.

RESOURCE 1

Family intake sheet for imam consultations

Give this to a family to complete before they meet the imam, ideally with the case summary from Raashid attached. It saves the imam time and shows which questions need a scholar. Suggested handling: the sheet belongs to the family. The mosque keeps no copy unless the family asks. A fillable copy is provided as a separate file.

Question	Family's answer
Is this about an estate after a death, or planning while alive?
If a death: date, and country or state of residence
Does the family follow a particular school (Hanafi, Maliki, Shafi'i, Hanbali)? Leave blank if unsure
Spouse or spouses living?
Sons and daughters living? Any who died before the deceased, and did they leave children?
Father and mother living? Grandparents living?
Brothers and sisters: full, paternal (same father), or maternal (same mother)?
Any adopted or step-children? Any non-Muslim relatives?
Main assets, approximate value, and how each is held (sole name, joint, named beneficiary)
Debts: loans, bills, funeral costs, unpaid mahr
Possible religious obligations: unpaid zakat, missed fasts, hajj not yet performed
Is there a will or written bequest (wasiyyah)? What does it say, and who gets it?
Is there an heir who is a minor?
Raashid case summary attached? Any flags it raised?
Questions for the imam

Imam's notes: points to refer to a scholar, points to refer to an attorney, follow-up date.

The sheet does not give a ruling. It collects the facts the imam will need.

RESOURCE 2

Imam source packet

A map to the sources already on raashid.com/sources, for an imam preparing a talk or a consultation. It points to the page rather than retyping texts, so the exact wording, translation labels and Arabic stay as published there. The imam decides what to teach and how.

Topic	Where on raashid.com/sources
The three inheritance verses and the verses on bequests	The Quran section: 4:11, 4:12, 4:176 and 4:7-8
Key hadith, each with a "used for" line	The Sunnah section (six entries)
Companion rulings: 'awl; the 'Umariyyatan; the grandfather with siblings	Companion rulings section
Classical works by school	Hanafi: al-Sirajiyyah, al-Hidayah. Maliki: al-Muwatta, al-Mudawwanah, Mukhtasar Khalil. Shafi'i: al-Umm, Minhaj al-Talibin. Hanbali: al-Mughni, al-Rawd al-Murbi'
Where the four schools differ	The four-school comparison table (six questions)

Order of steps, as the site's After a death page puts it: pay funeral costs and debts from the estate first; limit any bequest to one third and give it only to non-heirs unless all heirs agree; then divide the shares.

Talk outline (imam fills in the texts)

1. Why Allah set the shares: point to the verses and the Wisdom Behind the Shares page.
2. The order: debts and funeral costs, then a bequest up to one third to non-heirs, then the shares.
3. Practical gaps: the legal title on property and accounts may not match the intended Islamic division, so review with a scholar and an attorney.
4. Call to action: plan, tell your family where documents are kept, and update after a marriage, birth, death or divorce.

RESOURCE 3

Workshop facilitator guide

Pairs with the Raashid Community Workshop slide deck. The imam or a scholar leads any religious explanation. The facilitator runs the demo and the questions.

Ground rules to read aloud: this is general information, not legal or religious advice; do not share personal case details in the group; unusual cases go to a scholar; nobody here is selling anything.

Minutes	Segment	Slides	Notes
0-5	Welcome and ground rules	1-2	Say who is speaking for religious points.
5-15	Why plan, and what Raashid is	3-4	Free, private on the device, about five minutes.
15-30	Live demo	5-6	Use "Plan my estate" so no real family data is needed. Use the husband, son and daughter example from the site (wife dies; husband 1/4, son 1/2, daughter 1/4).
30-40	Common gaps	7-8	Legal ownership versus the Islamic division; wills and the one-third limit; debts first; non-Muslim relatives.
40-50	After a death	9	Walk through the seven groups on the After a death page.
50-60	Questions and next steps	10-11	Point to the attorney worksheet and to a scholar for unusual cases.

30-minute version: skip the common gaps segment and keep one example.

Family-night version: add a family-tree exercise. Each family draws its own tree on paper and marks who would be a fixed-share heir. No numbers are collected.

Demo steps: open raashid.com, choose "Plan my estate", enter a made-up family, show the result with sources, then open the four-school comparison on the sources page.

If a question gets too specific: "That is a question for a qualified scholar or for your attorney. Raashid flags cases like this."

RESOURCE 4

Estate-readiness campaign kit

Copy, paste and fill in the brackets. A flyer and a plain text file with the same text are in the kit.

Announcement (for the end of Friday prayer or the newsletter)

Many families put off a conversation about inheritance until it becomes urgent. On [date], [mosque name] is hosting a short session on Islamic inheritance planning using Raashid, a free calculator. Bring a question, not your documents. Nothing is collected, and this is general information, not legal or religious advice.

Bulletin blurb (about 25 words)

Planning your estate? Join us on [date] for a short workshop on how Islamic inheritance works, with a free, private calculator. All welcome.

Poster text

Estate planning for Muslim families. [Date, time, place]. Free. Bring a family member.

Ground rules for a local-professional Q&A night

1. Invite more than one professional where possible, and say that none is endorsed.
2. Each speaker teaches; no selling, no soliciting, and no collecting names for follow-up unless attendees volunteer.
3. Speakers disclose any relationship with the mosque.
4. The mosque takes no fee or referral payment.
5. The imam moderates, and religious rulings go to the imam or a scholar.
6. Attorneys and advisors check their own bar or regulatory rules for speaking events.

Invitation to a professional

Assalamu alaikum [Name]. [Mosque name] is hosting a community evening on estate planning for Muslim families on [date]. We would be grateful if you could speak for ten minutes and answer questions. We ask all speakers to teach rather than solicit and to follow the ground rules attached. We do not endorse any speaker.

RESOURCE 5

Bereavement committee pack

Built on the After a death checklist at raashid.com/after-a-death: general guidance, not legal or religious advice. Religious rulings go to the imam or a scholar. The tables are fillable on screen.

Roles

Role	What they do	Name and phone
Coordinator	First call to the family; keeps the checklist moving
Imam liaison	Funeral and burial arrangements; religious questions
Documents helper	Orders several death certificates; helps gather papers
Family support	Meals, visits, practical help
Follow-up	Checks in after one week, one month and three months

Checklist (the site's seven groups)

1. The first days: arrange the funeral and burial with family and the imam; request several copies of the death certificate; inform close family.
2. Find the documents: a will or bequest (wasiyyah); deeds, titles, statements, insurance, pension papers; a list of everything owed, including any unpaid mahr.
3. Secure what is there: keep property locked; do not sell, give away or divide anything until debts are known and shares are calculated.
4. Notify and claim: banks, employers, pension providers, insurers; check for life insurance, retirement accounts and named beneficiaries; apply for benefits that may be owed.
5. Pay what is owed: funeral costs and debts first; a bequest limited to one third and only to non-heirs unless all heirs agree; ask a scholar about unpaid zakat, missed fasts or an unperformed hajj.
6. The legal process: find out whether a court or administrator must approve; consult a local attorney before transferring property; keep records of payments.
7. Divide the estate: use Raashid for each share; record agreements; transfer ownership legally. If an heir is a minor, do not finalize without a scholar or attorney.

Local resources the mosque fills in

The mosque chooses these. Raashid endorses none.

Resource	Name	Phone	Notes
Funeral home or burial service
Cemetery
Probate court or office
Attorneys the community uses
Scholars the community trusts

RESOURCE 6

Weekend-school module

Three short lessons for older students, 30 to 40 minutes each. The teacher or imam handles all religious explanation. Students are not asked to memorize fractions.

Lesson	Aim	Activity
1. Who inherits?	Understand that Allah set the shares and that family relationships decide them	Each student draws a family tree and marks parents, spouse, children and siblings.
2. In what order?	Know the order: funeral costs and debts, then a bequest up to one third to non-heirs, then the shares	Sort cards into the right order.
3. Planning today	See why families talk early and keep a record of where documents are	Practice a respectful conversation with a parent or grandparent.

Worked example for lesson 1 (from the site): a wife, one son and both parents. The wife has 1/8, each parent 1/6, and the son the rest (13/24). Show it with the calculator, then ask students why the son gets the remainder.

Teacher note: check every religious statement against the Sources page before teaching, and send unusual questions to the imam.

Use of this kit

This kit is free to use and adapt for your mosque or community. It is general information. It is not legal or religious advice, and it does not endorse any professional or product. Raashid does not collect what visitors enter. Questions: see the support page at raashid.com/support.
